FOCUS EUROPE – New Edition

The second edition of the European magazine FOCUS EUROPE was released in June 2011. In this edition even more projects, articles and events were included related to different topics that are relevant for people involved or interested in European cooperation projects, products and contents. The originally 16 pages were extended to 24 pages because of the great interest in contributing project information and articles all over Europe.

Would you like to take a look and read more?

The magazine is available for free download at C-E.N.T.E.R. website:

<http://www.c.enter-network.eu/index.php?id=262>

Also the second edition is printed in 1.000 pieces and sent to all National Agencies in Europe as well as to the Executive Agency and the European Commission. The next edition will be released in January 2012.

Contributions for edition in January 2012

As there were so many contributions provided for the second edition the 16 pages covered by the project budget are unfortunately already full for the third edition in January 2012. If you are interested in publishing your project, organisation and events on additional pages in the magazine (charges to be applied!) please contact Petra Kampf at petra.kampf@enter-network.eu for available space and further information before sending your articles.

The submission deadline is November 16th, 2011
